Sacraments

The sacraments are at the heart of our Catholic faith, serving as visible signs of God's grace in our lives. Through these sacred encounters, we are united more deeply with Christ and strengthened to live as His disciples. The Sacraments remind us that God is present in every stage of our journey, inviting us into a deeper relationship with Him and the Church community.

Sacrament of Matrimony

We congratulate all who are seeking the Sacrament of Marriage. Couples should arrange for marriage at least one year in advance of the desired wedding date to secure the date. All couples are required to attend a Pre-Canva Conference as part of their preparation for the Sacrament of Marriage. No Sunday weddings. Please contact the Rectory Office.

Baptisms

Parish registration is required for all families wanting to have a child/children baptized. Parents are required to attend a Baptism Preparation Class. Godparents need to obtain a Letter of Eligibility (sponsorship) from their current parish. Baptisms are scheduled the 2nd and 3rd Sundays of the month. Ceremonies follow the Noon Mass at 1:30 PM. Please contact the Rectory Office.

A Letter From Our Pastor

REV. BRIAN PATRICK WOODROW

My Dear Parish Family,

Together, we continue to pray to Almighty God in gratitude and Thanksgiving for the papacy of Pope Francis, and for his peaceful repose. As many of you know, I was originally scheduled to travel on your behalf to Rome for the canonization of Blessed Carlo Acutis. Of course, without our Pontiff, while the holy seat is empty, this cannot happen.

It is amazing, humbling and somewhat awe-inspiring to see how when our pope passes away, the world seems to stop, not just the Church herself. As you may have seen on television, there was an incredible number of world leaders who attended the funeral, including our own president. It was interesting to see how many of these world leaders were all so clearly moved by the liturgical celebration of the Requiem Mass. We who were present could not help but feel a sense of profound world peace even if it was just for a fleeting moment.

Now it is time for us to pray for our new pope and to employ the grace of the Holy Spirit to guide the Cardinals will begin the conclave very shortly.

In peace let us pray for our Cardinals as they pray for us,

Fr. Brian Patrick Woodrow

*Eternal rest grant unto him,
O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in peace. Amen.*

*Requiem aeternam dona ei,
Domine, et lux perpetua luceat ei. Requiescat in pace. Amen.*

Prayer for the Election of a New Pope

O God, eternal shepherd, who govern your flock with unfailing care, grant in your boundless fatherly love a pastor for your Church who will please you by his holiness and to us show watchful care. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Following the death of our Holy Father, Pope Francis, the Church now enters a time of prayerful expectation as the Cardinals of the Church prepare to gather in conclave beginning May 7th in the Sistine Chapel. This ancient and solemn rite, rooted in centuries of sacred tradition, is entrusted entirely to the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

The Cardinal electors will meet in seclusion to offer Mass, pray the Liturgy of the Hours, and cast their votes in silence and secrecy. A two-thirds majority is required to elect the new Supreme Pontiff. After each vote, the ballots are burned—black smoke indicating no result, white smoke proclaiming to the world:
Habemus Papam—We have a Pope.

All the Faithful are invited to join in fervent prayer during these days, imploring the Holy Spirit to raise up a worthy successor to Saint Peter.

Veni, Sancte Spiritus. Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Thy faithful and enkindle in them the fire of Thy love.

The Downey Side RED Gala

Many of you may be aware that there are nearly 500,000 children in the foster care system in the United States. These children dream daily of having what other kids enjoy: a forever family, a stable school environment, and a house they can truly call home. Unfortunately, most of them age out of the system and become a statistic. The situation is urgent, and Downey Side is dedicated to preventing this outcome. We need your help.

We rely on fundraising and donations to make adoption more affordable and maintain our focus on pairing children with permanent families. Join us for a fun RED Gala on June 19th from 6 to 10 p.m. at the Shore Club. The event will kick off with a cocktail hour, followed by Casino games, a silent auction, live music, beautiful baskets to win, and a delicious dinner. Don't forget to wear something RED. We hope to see you there!

To purchase your tickets before they sell out, please visit our website at www.downeyside.org. We are truly grateful for your potential support. For more information, feel free to contact Dawn Rusinko at 732-359-8434 or drusinko@downeyside.org

“The more Eucharist we receive, the more we will become like Jesus so that on this earth we will have a foretaste of Heaven”

Blessed Carlo Acutis

Let's Pray

Lord Jesus,

You come to us in the Most Holy Eucharist, offering not only Your love but Your very self. Through the example of Blessed Carlo Acutis, help me to approach You with greater faith, reverence, and love.

Transform my heart each time I receive You. Make me more like You, more obedient to the Father's will, more loving to others, and more faithful in every moment. May Your presence in the Eucharist be my strength, my guide, and my joy, until I come to see You face-to-face in the eternal banquet of Heaven. Amen.

Blessed Carlo Acutis understood that the Eucharist is not just a symbol, but the Real Presence of Jesus Christ—Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. For Carlo, receiving the Eucharist wasn't a ritual; it was an encounter with the living God, one that slowly transformed his heart to reflect Christ more perfectly.

This quote invites us to see the Eucharist as the most powerful way to grow in holiness and union with God. It is through this sacrament that we are conformed to Christ and experience the joy of Heaven even while we are still on earth. Carlo reminds us that to receive the Eucharist is to welcome Jesus into our lives, allowing His presence to shape us, guide us, and sanctify us.

Reflect on how you approach the Eucharist.
Is it with awe, love, and longing—or has it become routine?
When you receive Communion, do you truly believe that you are receiving Jesus Himself?

Are you allowing the grace of the Eucharist to shape you into someone more forgiving, more generous, more faithful to God's will? Carlo believed that the Eucharist is the “highway to Heaven” because it draws us deeper into God's love and transforms us from the inside out. Ask yourself if you're making space for this transformation, and how you might draw nearer to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.

Gospel Reading: John 21:1-19

Jesus appears to the disciples for a third time after his Resurrection and shares a meal with them.

Today's Gospel describes what we can easily imagine as a picnic on the beach. Just as Jesus' miracle at the wedding feast at Cana blesses the love between man and woman celebrated in the sacrament of marriage, Jesus' attentiveness to food and mealtimes raises the possibility that our meal gatherings can be sacred times. In families, the domestic church, our meals together are everyday opportunities to gather and recall Jesus' presence with us. As in the Eucharist, we bring the gifts that God has given us, which have been prepared especially for our Mass, and at our family meals we share gifts that God has given to us and that we have worked together to prepare. This includes the food on the table and also the people who gather around the table. We ask God to bless these gifts and to be present among us in all of our interactions.

Consider a recent family meal: What food was served? Where did the food come from? Who prepared the food? Who served the food? Was mealtime a happy time? Why or why not? Observe that today's Gospel tells about a meal that Jesus shared with his disciples after his Resurrection. Read aloud today's Gospel, John 21:1-14. Reflect on the Gospel reading using the questions above. Talk about ways in which this meal that Jesus shared with his disciples might remind us of the meal we share at the Eucharist. You might choose to plan a special meal together as a family, encouraging each person to participate in the meal preparation. Pray together that Jesus will make his loving presence known in your family life. Pray together the Lord's Prayer.

The month of May is dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

"Hail holy Mother, thou who dost bring forth the King who rules heaven and earth forever and ever."

Prayer to Mary

"O Mary, my dear Mother, how much I love thee! And yet in reality how little! Thou dost teach me what I ought to know, for thou teachest me what Jesus is to me and what I ought to be for Jesus.

Dearly beloved Mother, how close to God thou art, and how utterly filled with Him!

In the measure that we know God, we remind ourselves of thee. Mother of God, obtain for me the grace of loving my Jesus; obtain for me the grace of loving thee!"

Epistle (I Peter 2 : 21 - 25)

Caríssimi: Christus passus est pro nobis, vobis relínquens exémplum, ut sequámini vestigia ejus. Qui peccátum non fecit, nec invéntus est dolus in ore ejus: qui cum maledicerétur, non maledicébat: cum paterétur, non comminabátur: tradébat autem judicánti se injúste: qui peccáta nostra ipse pértulit in córpore suo super lignum: ut peccátis mórtui, justitiæ vivámus: cujus livóre sanáti estis. Erátis enim sicut oves errántes, sed convérsi estis nunc ad pastórem et episcopum animárum vestrárum.

Dearly beloved: Christ suffered for us, leaving you an example, that you should follow His steps, who did no sin, neither was guile found in His mouth. Who when He was reviled, did not revile: when He suffered, He threatened not, but delivered Himself to him that judged Him unjustly: who His own self bore our sins in His body upon the tree: that we, being dead to sins, should live to justice; by whose stripes you were healed. For you were as sheep going astray: but you are now converted to the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

Gospel (John 10 : 11 - 16)

In illo témpore: Dixit Jesus pharisæis: Ego sum pastor bonus. Bonus pastor ánimam suam dat pro óvibus suis. Mercenárius autem, et qui non est pastor, cujus non sunt oves própriae, videt lupum veniéntem, et dimíttit oves et fugit: et lupus rapit et dispérgit oves: mercenárius autem fugit, quia mercenárius est, et non pértinet ad eum de óvibus. Ego sum pastor bonus: et cognósco meas, et cognóscunt me meæ. Sicut novit me Pater, et ego agnósco Patrem: et ánimam meam pono pro óvibus meis. Et álías oves hábeo quæ non sunt ex hoc ovíli: et illas opórtet me addúcere, et vocem meam áudient, et fiet unum ovíle et unus pastor. — Credo.

At that time Jesus said to the Pharisees: I am the good Shepherd. The good Shepherd giveth His life for His sheep. But the hireling, and he that is not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming and leaveth the sheep and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth and scattereth the sheep: and the hireling fleeth, because he is a hireling and he hath no care for the sheep. I am the good Shepherd: and I know Mine, and Mine know Me. As the Father knoweth Me, and I know the Father: and I lay down My life for My sheep. And other sheep I have that are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear My voice, and there shall be one fold and one shepherd. — Creed.

*I am the good shepherd,
and I know Mine, and Mine know Me.*

“Ego sum pastor bonus.”
“I am the Good Shepherd.” (John 10:11)

On this Sunday, the Church sets before us the tender and powerful image of Christ the Good Shepherd — the One who knows His sheep, lays down His life for them, and calls each by name.

The Gospel (John 10:11–16) reminds us that the Cross was not an accident, but the loving choice of the Shepherd who would rather die than see His flock lost. Having conquered death, He now gathers His sheep into one fold — the Church — guiding them with truth, feeding them with grace, and guarding them from harm.

In a world of false shepherds and wandering paths, the voice of the True Shepherd still calls. Let us listen. Let us follow. And let us rest in the heart of the One who laid down His life — and took it up again — that we might live.

O Jesus, our Good Shepherd,
You laid down Your life for us,
and by Your Resurrection
You have brought us into new life.

Lead us always in the paths of truth and grace.
Guard us from the snares of sin,
and call us ever closer to Your Sacred Heart.

Grant that we may know Your voice,
follow You with trust,
and never be parted from You,
who live and reign forever and ever. Amen.

“O bone Pastor, panis vere, Iesu, nostri miserere...”
(O Good Shepherd, true Bread, Jesus, have mercy on us.)

Blessed Imelda Lambertini wanted to receive the Holy Eucharist, but she was too young. She knelt by the Tabernacle and prayed that God would let her receive Communion. The Eucharist miraculously floated out of the Tabernacle for her First Communion!
